

PENNSYLVANIA
INNOCENCE
PROJECT

DEDICATED TO JUSTICE

A VIRTUAL CELEBRATION

OCTOBER 20, 2021

7:30PM

The Pennsylvania Innocence Project invites you to our annual celebration, Dedicated to Justice - an evening celebrating individuals who have made extraordinary efforts in the pursuit of justice in the criminal law system.

The evening will feature a fireside chat with attorneys Jerry Blackwell and Steve Schleicher, who answered the call for justice when they took time away from their respective private practices to help lead the prosecution of Derek Chauvin for the murder of George Floyd.

In addition, we will be recognizing three individuals for their remarkable work in Pennsylvania in the area of wrongful convictions and exonerations.

We will be presenting the Maureen Rowley Award, given to an individual who has devoted their career to pursuing justice, to Patricia Cummings, former supervisor of the Conviction Integrity Unit of the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office. Patricia's profoundly impactful work has contributed to the exoneration of many wrongfully convicted individuals.

Nathan Andrisani, a partner with Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP, will receive our Edward D. Ohlbaum Volunteer Award for his tireless work on behalf of multiple Pennsylvania Innocence Project clients. Among these is Andrew Swainson, who was exonerated in the summer of 2020 after being wrongfully convicted and serving 31 years in prison.

And we will present our Hero of Justice Award to our Immediate Past President, Howard Scher, who has demonstrated sustained commitment to achieving criminal justice for all through his dedication and passion for the Pennsylvania Innocence Project, our mission, and our clients.

We hope that you will become a major sponsor and join us at this important event. Your sponsorship gift directly supports our work freeing the innocent.

We are attaching a list of sponsor benefits and a form you can complete and send in with your check or credit card information. You can also donate directly here.
